

CONCERNS

Unhappiness with which charisma and demagogic rhetoric. Charisma should be more publicized version (more Zizekian)???

Should look Silverman's Threshold of the Visible World, desire is being asked to do too much work.

Stunning absences in literature Copjec, chapter on Regan in Read my Desire; McDaniel's essay on Roosevelt

Charisma, Charles Lindhold's book. Fine chapters on all sorts of stuff, Hitler, Manson, Jim Jones, chapters on social theories. . .

Unhappy with treatment with the feminine; given the concept of hysteria this section on feminine must be more thorough.

Agreed with disappointment about collapse of rhetoric and language.

The actual analysis or reading I do contradicts the central argument.
